A Compelling New Book by Eva Pappas, Ph.D.

December 14, 2006 - The Clean Slate Publishers Group has released its newest title, The Other Son - One Family's Personal War on Drugs. This true story, narrated by Eva Pappas, Ph.D., shares with us the challenges she faced as a mother and psychoanalyst, in reclaiming her son's spirit from the drug culture. Both a memoir and a clinical reference for professionals, The Other Son is an inspiring story of a family willing to do whatever was necessary to save their sixteen year old son. It's a universal story that is happening across America right now as countless teens lose their way, their motivation sapped by the abuse of alcohol, and the rituals and ways of the drug culture.

Here's what they're saying about the book:

"The author lives every parent's nightmare... It is a must read for parents, educators, and anyone who works with teens..."

Joyce Thomas, Parent

"It is intense... a story of courage and determination..."

J. Calvin Chatlos, M.D.

Associate Clinical Professor of Psychiatry
Robert Wood Johnson Medical School

"Legions of Moms and Dads will swiftly identify with Eva Pappas... and through their tears discover the tools for sound parenting..."
